SPECIAL ISSUES IN BREAST CANCER
SPECIAL AND RARE IMAGES IN BREAST CANCER

Antoine GHOSSAIN¹, Georges CHAHINE², David ATALLAH³

1  Inflammatory breast cancer

2  Locally advanced breast carcinoma

¹General Surgery, ²Hematology-Oncology, ³Gynecologic Oncology and Breast Surgery Departments, Hôtel-Dieu de France University Hospital, Beirut, Lebanon.

Corresponding author: David ATALLAH, MD. Gynecologic Oncology and Breast Surgery Dept. Hôtel-Dieu de France University Hospital, Alfred Naccache Blvd. P.O. Box 16-6830 Achrafieh - Beirut, Lebanon.

e-mail: davidatallah@yahoo.com  Tel: +961 1 615300 ext. 9415
Squamous locally advanced breast carcinoma destroying breast

Locally advanced breast carcinoma with satellite nodules

Axillary relapse
6 Cancer of inflammatory fold

7 Carcinoma « en cuirasse de Velpeau »

8 Phyllode tumor
9 Late recurrence internal mammary lymph nodes

10 Paget’s disease

11 Late radionecrosis
12 Squamous cell carcinoma of the skin invading breast

13 Soft tissue tumor of the axilla simulating supernumerary breast

14 Retromammary TB abscess

15 Post mastectomy echymosis
16 Phlegmatia coerulea

17 Opening the axillary vein after thrombosis

18 Periareolar abscess with benign peau d’orange

19 Acute skin reaction to radiation